MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Request for Extension in SDNY Case No. 21-cv-01803,
*Coker v. Goldberg & Associates P.C.

Dear Magistrate Judge Moses:

I write today to respectfully request the Court for a two-week extension to respond and file opposition to Plaintiff's letter motion regarding discovery insufficiencies and a request for sanctions against Defendants (filed on April 28, 2023, ECF No. 78).

I am the attorney handling this case for Defendants, and I am currently preparing for a trial taking place next week for another of my cases. As such, I do not have an appropriate amount of time to review Plaintiff's letter motion and prepare a satisfactory opposition on behalf of my clients for the next week, at the least.

Thus, I am humbly requesting the court allow me an additional two weeks to properly respond and file opposition to Plaintiff's letter motion.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Application GRANTED. Plaintiff's April 28, 2023 discovery letter-motion is over-length, includes over 150 pages of exhibits, and seeks a default judgment. Defendants may have until May 17, 2023 to file their opposition to the letter-motion. No further extensions will be granted absent compelling circumstances.
SO ORDERED.

Hon. Barbara Moses, U.S.M.J.
